

Calling all

Dreamers and Thinkers

Change starts with you, and your voice counts!

YOUNG VOICES is part of the outreach program of the World Bank's #ReformsForABrighterFuture initiative to foster debate and dialogue on critical economic development issues facing Pakistan.

Here's how you can get your voice heard:

STEP 1

Pick one theme from below to participate

STEP 2

Get creative! Your submission can be a short essay (max. 800 words), speech, video (max. 2 minutes), artwork, music (max. 2 minutes), or poetry in Urdu or English (or both).

STEP 3

Email your submission by midnight of October 31st, 2023. You can participate only under one theme.

For each theme, five winners will be selected based on message, impact, and presentation. The competition is only open for young Pakistanis (Aged 16-25)

Theme 01:

Poverty Through Your Eyes

- Beyond money, what do poverty and vulnerability look like in your community?
- How do you see the poor around you being affected by climate change?
- How can you and your community help fight poverty and vulnerability locally?

Submit to: youthvoices@iba.edu.pk

Theme 02:

Leaders and you: Demanding change!

- What should politically elected leaders do to address Pakistan's most critical challenges?
- How are you contributing to change in your community?
- How can we deliver change in rural communities?
- Any other ideas on delivering change...

Submit to: js_psde@pide.org.pk

Theme 03:

Imagining a Brighter Future for Pakistan

- What would a livable, prosperous, and inclusive Pakistan look like to you?
- What is women's role in Pakistan's Brighter Future?
- How can the effects of climate change be mitigated to create a livable country?

Submit to: youthchallenge@sdpi.org

Each of the top five entries gets a cash prize of Rs. 50,000 and the opportunity to present at a Development Conference in November 2023!
